Tucson Orchid Society

founded 1972

The Tucson Orchid Society founded in 1972 is a group of orchid enthusiasts dedicated to growing orchids in the Desert Southwest. Our unique climate provides challenges to even the more experienced growers. Our members range from novice to awarded and recognized orchid growers. The society goal is to increase interest and knowledge of orchid horticulture in our community.

Meetings often feature guest speakers from around the world and frequently plants are available through our speakers at meetings.

The highlight of our monthly meetings is “Show and Tell” where members bring their favorite plants to share.
